KE AHE KAI 1967

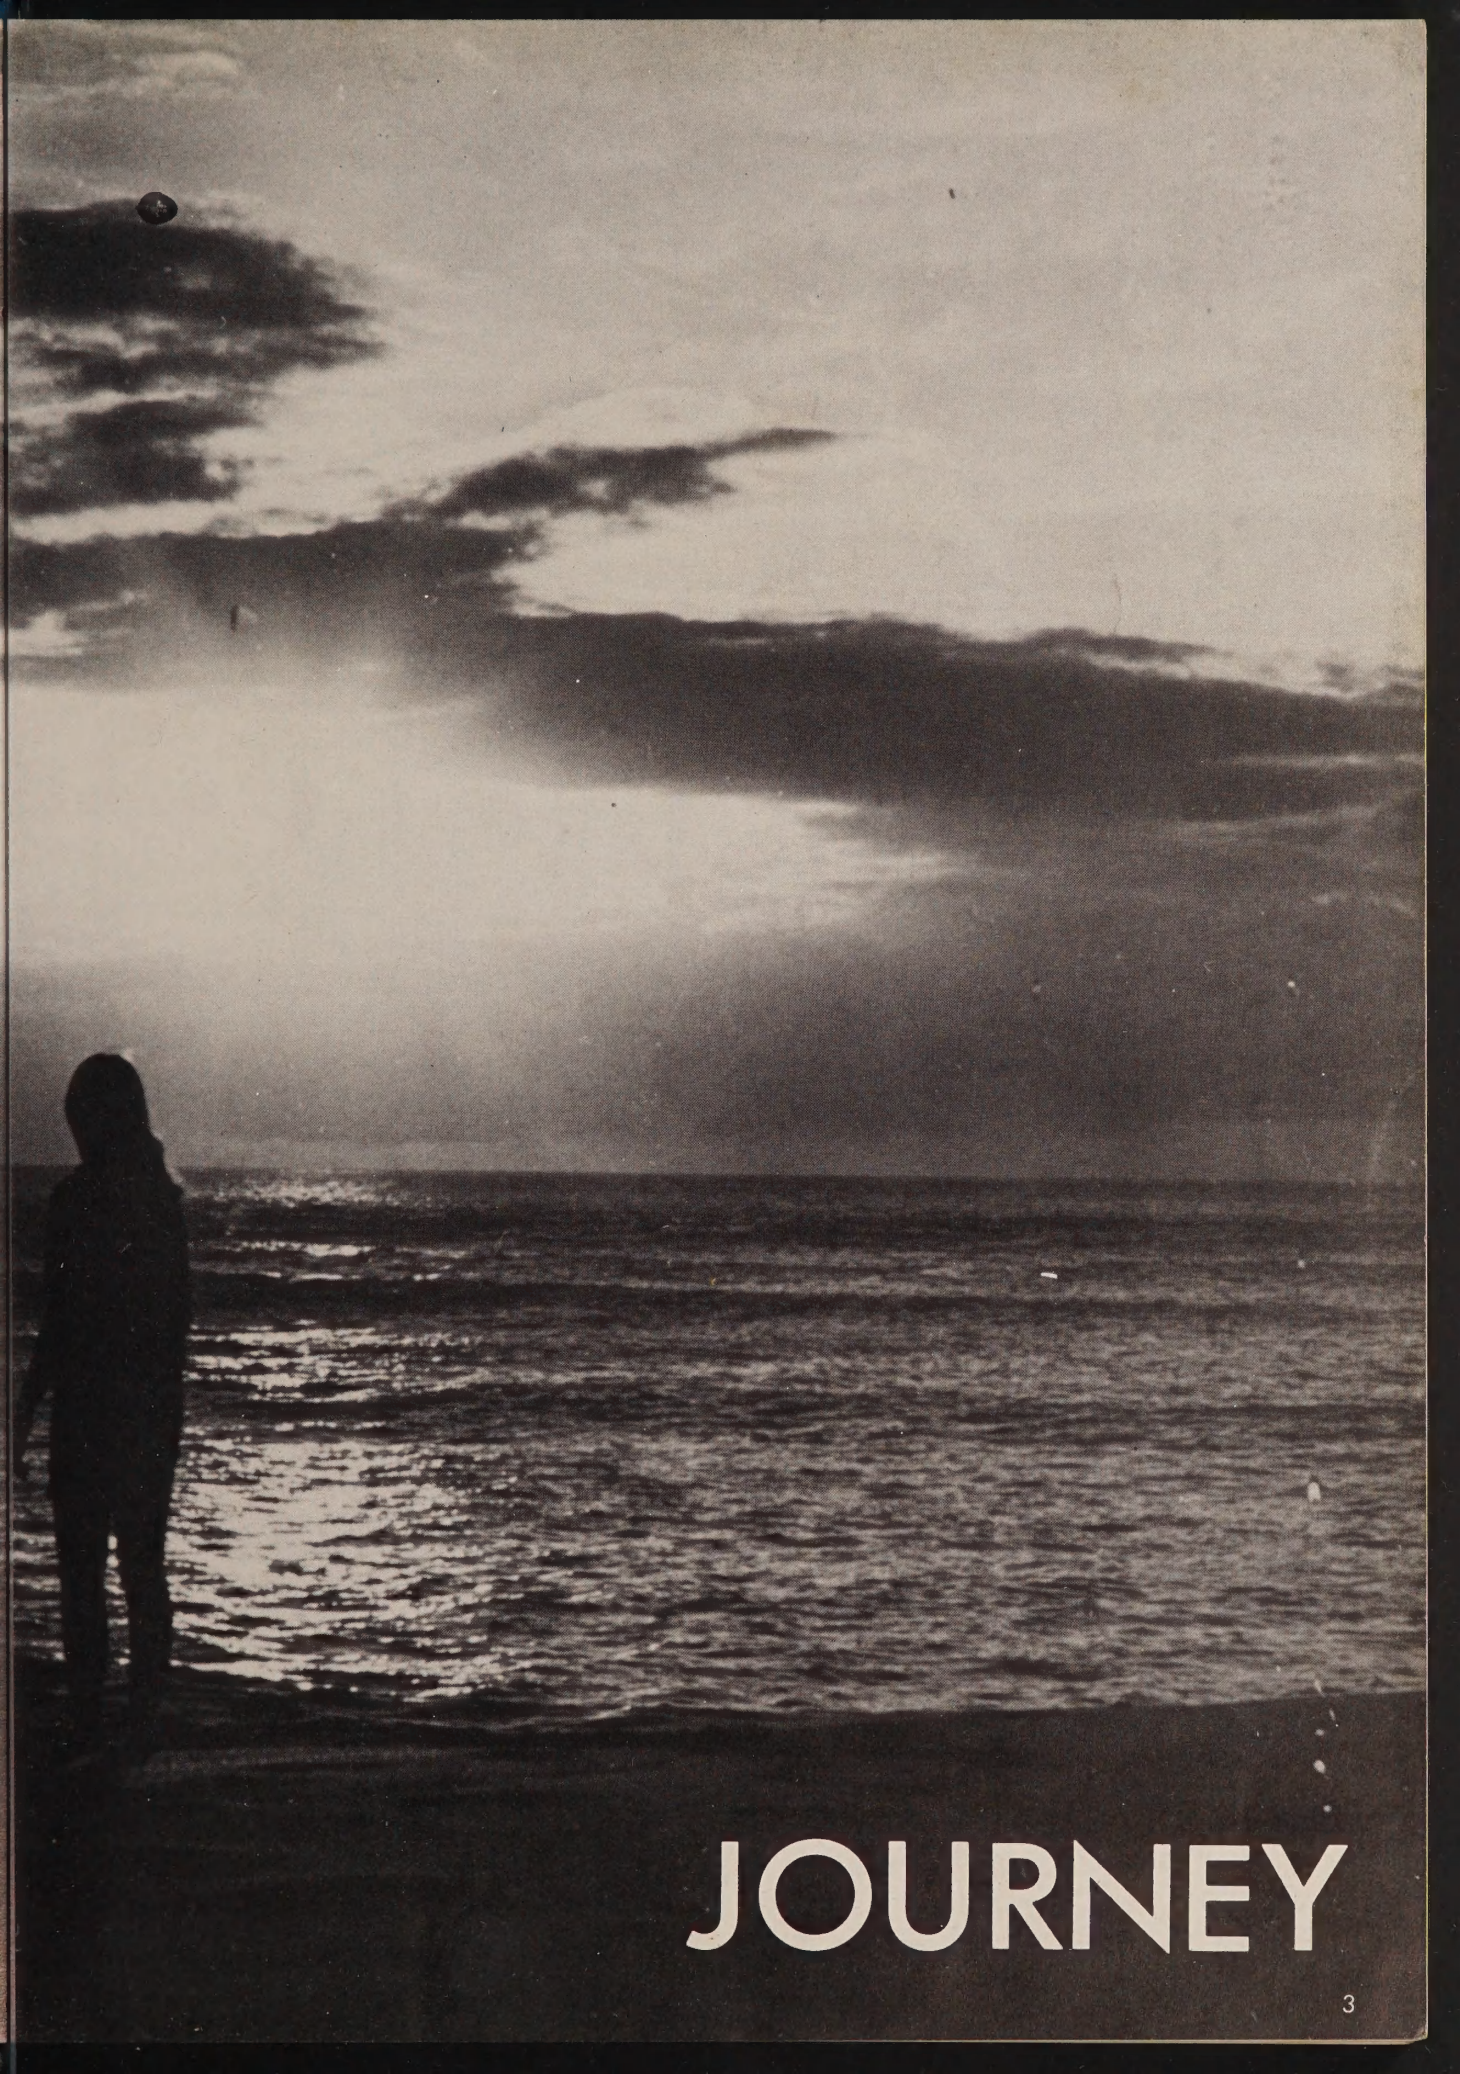

Hail to thee O Waianae set against the radiant sky
From the beaches still and cool
Come the breezes toward our school
From the mountains to the ocean
We all stand with firm devotion
Waianae Alma Mater
Waianae Alma Mater.

Forward then O Waianae with your colors waving high
Led by both the Red and Blue
We will always fight for you
Let our hearts be filled with spirit
Love of wisdom, pride and honor
Waianae Alma Mater
Waianae Alma Mater.

ENDLESS

JOURNEY

FOREWORD

To the Reader:

A solitary figure strolls along the beach. With each step, fresh impressions are made in the ever-shifting sands. From blue skies, the morning sunlight streams down upon his back, glistens across the land and out toward the horizon. A wave surges forth. Increasing speed, it crests, crashes, and finally disintegrates upon the beach. Caressing the wanderer's feet, it recedes to resound upon other shores. Spray from the swelling seas mingled with the whistling wind rush to taunt and dare him to push forward—to overcome all obstacles and attain new heights on the "Endless Journey."

You are that figure on the beach. Like each of us, you have been summoned to tread the "Endless Journey." The way will not be easy. We have a tremendous responsibility, for upon our shoulders rests a measure of the burden of a nation's trust. Our goal should be to function effectively and intelligently in a tumultuous world. We should be constantly aware that our ideals must rest upon a respect for humanity, a conception of human dignity, and a belief in human brotherhood.

Therefore, we the 1967 Ke Ahe Kai staff, challenge you to join with us in opening our minds and hearts to the infinite wonders of life, to strive to make our few moments productive and contributive on this "Endless Journey."

Sincerely yours,

Cheryl Matsumoto

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

One can not strike out on a journey without a destination in mind and proper direction and guidance. Our progress on this Endless Journey is possible only as our administration and faculty afford the guiding light for the way. As we struggle and grope for direction, they help us find a purpose in life and assist us in developing our minds and bodies towards the fulfillment of our ultimate goals.

Robert,
You're been a wonderful friend
for a couple of years.
Shirley & I
Love you around!

Principal's Message

An Endless Journey is one with a good purpose. It means not to coast on present achievements at Waianae High School, but to grow by making everything that happens after graduation further your well being.

Life should be a sojourn of constant evaluation and reconstruction. It is a process of developing until you can believe in an eternal growth.

As you climb higher on the steps of your life's infinite tower, the horizons widen and the vision becomes clearer and broader. So should your life be from youth to adulthood.

To live is to change, to change is to mature, to mature is to go on improving yourself endlessly. This is the way of your Endless Journey. May your life be a successful one—endless, eternal, and everlasting.

Congratulations to the advisor and the members of the yearbook staff for publishing this outstanding annual.

Imua O Waianae!

Raymond N. Torii, Principal

Waianae High and Intermediate School

Vice-principal's Message

To most students, education comes to an end after twelve years of formal education, while to others graduation means another four or five years and a college degree. Contrary to this belief, education is endless—an Endless Journey.

Frustrating though it may be, those who have embarked upon this journey find it rewarding and pleasurable.

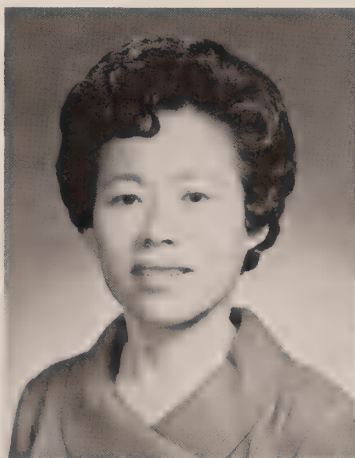

It is without any apprehension that I wish all of you good fortune on this Endless Journey.

Aloha and best wishes,

Milton S. Shishido

ENGLISH

In an age which tends to emphasize the scientific, the importance of English must not be underestimated. There seems to be little danger of this occurring at Waianae. Our English department has placed increased emphasis on critical reading, independent thinking, and flawless written expression taught hand in hand with the basics of grammar and the perfections of literature.

HOMEMAKING AND MUSIC

Initial effort toward homemaking is more important in this age than ever before. Young people are taught the responsibilities in the home, and, through courses in cooking, sewing, child care, and budget planning, are prepared to accept the role of adults.

Our music department aids students in developing their musical aptitudes so that wherever they go they can please the ears, minds and hearts of people.

The Class of 1967 ventured forth on a new phase of this Endless Journey when they first entered Waianae High School in 1962. Each new experience helped them progress toward a significant landmark—graduation day. With their frosh social, "Let's Get Together," in mind, the 67'ers combined forces to place in the homecoming float contest and win first in the PTA Carnival scrip sale. Vying for school recognition, they changed the traditional title from "Suffering" to "Sophisticated" Sophomores and demonstrated that sophistication as they got down to the real "Nitty Gritty" in their annual social, Memorial Day Breakfast and academics. "Jolly" Juniors they were as they frolicked at the "Hillbilly Hop" in November of '65. Their Junior Class Play, "Web of Murder," proved to be the most successful ever staged at Waianae High School and led the way for an equally memorable junior prom, "Days of Wine and Roses."

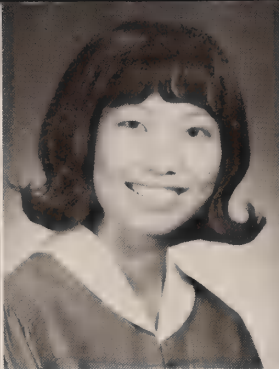

Then in the fall of 1966, the Class of '67 rounded the bend, and graduation day loomed ahead. As Mighty Seniors now, they marched through the most significant year of all. Success was guaranteed as they took honors in the homecoming parade and went on to be the first class to win the ROIA Football Championship. Reminiscence of the "Twelfth of Never," the Senior Ball and Banquet, prevailed as Seniors took their last stroll through school hallways. Then, with sighs of relief and tears of regret, the Class of '67 marched toward their final commencement exercise.

"Pride in the Past, Confidence in the Future"

As Seniors poised on the threshold of a great change, we give one last look at what we leave behind and then, like those before us, taking our memories with us, we step forward toward new horizons on this Endless Journey.

BORN FREE

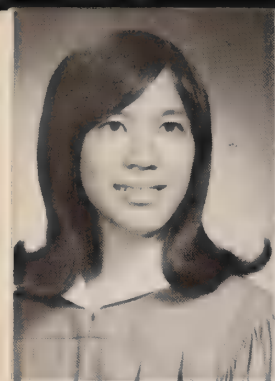

Born free
As free as the wind blows
As free as the grass grows
Born free to follow your heart

Live free
As beauty surrounds you
The world still astounds you
Each time you look at a star

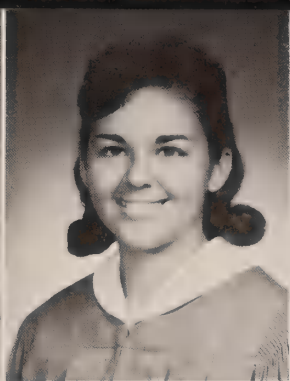

Stay free
Let no walls divide you
You're free as the roaring tide
So there's no need to hide

Born free
And life is worth living
But only worth living
Cause you're born free.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Restless and searching in many respects, our underclassmen are represented by the free quality of the ever-present source of movement, the wind. Unfettered, now gentle and soft, shifting quickly to harshness and strength, the wind displays all the vagaries of the high school years.

The Junior Class faced a challenging year of responsibility and met the challenge with force. They excelled both in the classroom and on the playing field, and demonstrated true sportsmanship in all their activities. Enthusiastic Juniors frolicked to the rhythm of a "Jungle Paradise" at their social in November and cavorted to tunes from "Li'l Abner" at their traditional Junior class play in March. The year was climaxed in April by their Junior Prom, "Some Enchanted Evening." Thus, led by their motto, "Knowledge Leads to Success," the "Jolly Juniors" have enhanced their reputation as valuable students at Waianae.

CLASS OF '69

For the class of '69 it was a great year of preparation and achievement. Careful preparation resulted in a successful money-making project, the annual Memorial Day Breakfast, and a social mobbed by a hundred and fifty Sophs. Displaying a fine sense of sportsmanship, Sophomores contributed many valuable players to both football and basketball.

CLASS OF '70

Under the guidance of competent officers, the Freshmen were active in all aspects of campus life. Proudly waving the colors of green and white, the industrious Freshmen involved the school in the various state-wide speech tournaments and took avid participation in Student Government Activities, showing true concern for school prestige. A major class event, the Frosh Social was a credit to both the hard working committee and the high spirited students. Led by their motto "To Strive Is to Succeed," their first year as part of the high school was one of work and play, fun and exasperation. It was certainly a memorable year.

ORGANIZATION

These are the young years, the fruitful years when time means only the day after tomorrow. Each moment during high school is spent in preparation and anticipation of the years to come. Progress on this Endless Journey calls for the experience gained through participation in the various organizations included in campus life.

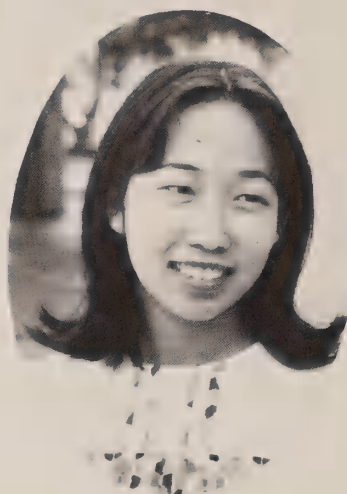

STUDENT GOVERNMENT OFFICERS

Acting as the principal leaders of the Waianae High and Intermediate School Student Association, our student government officers helped form necessary policies and supervised the many departments of the Student Association.

REPRESENTATIVE ASSEMBLY

Homeroom representatives meeting faithfully throughout the year comprise the organized Representative Assembly. While concluding various special activities it performed the usual duties of legislating student finances and improving campus life. Other than granting students a practical role in governing Waianae High, the Representative Assembly actively teaches the ideals of democracy and the practices of parliamentarianism.

ATHLETICS

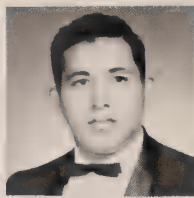

As man faces the power and mysteries of nature on this Endless Journey, he must develop within himself the strength and determination necessary to meet the challenge. With this accomplishment comes deeper understanding and the zeal to push forward. As we strive for victory on the playing field, a similar challenge on the vaster field of life is faced with equal vigor. Each individual gives of his best to the team and feels disappointment when that best is not quite good enough. When victory is won, all men are bound together in the thrill of triumph. So it is with the timeless campaign of life itself.

Co-captains Omega Reyes and Robin Silva

Never before has a football season at Waianae been so dramatic, so exciting, so unpredictable. Hoarse Waianae fans managed to survive each exciting moment of play on the ground and in the air, to see victory after victory, led by Captains Omega Reyes and Robin Silva. Coach Larry Ginoza and the Seariders brought to Waianae its first R.O.I.A. Football Championship.

The team's driving determination was evident in every offensive maneuver as the Seariders passed, scrambled, and plunged downfield. A powerful and tenacious defense held seven out of ten opponents scoreless. In mid-November, ten thousand football fans crowded into the Waianae stands to see the Seariders, "the team that simply would not be beaten," battle to a tie with Kahu-ku, the one impediment to the championship. With that championship in sight, the team went on to win the decisive Turkey game and demonstrated conclusively that the Seariders are every inch, every pound, every man, true champions.

Randy Inafuku sweeps the end for a Searider touchdown.

With a nucleus of returning veterans from last year's Varsity and Jayvee squads, Waianae was rated highly in its bid for the basketball crown. Although playing inspired ball the greater part of the time, the boys dropped three real heartbreakers—one to Kahuku during regular league play, one to Kailua and one to Leilehua during the round robin exhibitions. The season, however, was successful in other ways. For through their triumphs and failures, our boys learned confidence, comradeship, humility and discipline, all of which aid in the development of true sportsmanship.

BOYS' VARSITY TRACK

Urged on by yells and cheers, each runner did his best to be the one to break the ribbon. This was the attitude of each member of the track team. He was one who never gave up but constantly strove for perfection in all his performances.

Coach Mr. Richard Englar

Missing: Francisco Catian, Stephen Lorenzo, Peter Carlos, Reginald Cosma, Harry Dela Cruz, Sherman Roman, Daniel Saragosa, Gordon Carlos, Eric Domen, John Monis, Jerry Agbayani, Alfred Magno, Edward Pimental, Alexander Gaspar, Harold Hirakawa, Conrad Maesaka, Alfred Pantaleon, Louis Ellis, Abraham Naki, William Dana.

"My legs are smoother than yours," chuckles Francisco Limbago.

"Ohhhh, my haole feet."

As usual, the boys are working as the girls loaf.

All legs and no body.

"Gossip time," say Coach Englar.

"Run, run, run, that's all I do."

ACTIVITIES

Sucked from the tranquil streams and placid ponds, gaining momentum, the water rushes, swirls, and rears over the falls into the churning river below. Each separate fall represents a unique group of people who, with their individual experiences, special activities, and avid interests and participation in the happenings around them, add to the steady stream and exhilarating challenge to life on this Endless Journey.

CANDIDS

CANDIDS

ROYALTY

Before man lies a road that stretches out almost endlessly as far as the eye can see, a road abounding in the beauty and grace of man and woman, a beauty and grace which lends meaning to all who walk this road. El Camino Real . . . "the royal way."

These were our classmates and friends who were chosen to represent what was good and beautiful in each of us who were in turn chosen to walk the royal way of life, the Endless Journey of human endeavor.

MR. AND MISS KE AHE KAI

One of the most inspirational and dependable of students at Waianae High School was our Student Body president, Aurelio Bernardino. In tribute to his leadership and in gratitude for his many contributions to student life at Waianae High School, the staff of Ke Ahe Kai has chosen him as "Mr. Ke Ahe Kai."

Besides his service of Student Body President, he has been active in the class Social Committee and in Pacific-Asian Affairs Council activities during his senior year. During both junior and senior years he participated in the Ke Ahe Kai Quiz Bowl.

In his junior year he was Student Government Assembly Committee chairman, Public-Address Committee chairman, Spanish Club vice president as well as being a member of the Student Government Executive Council, Service Committee, and Spirit and Rally Committee.

He occupied the office of vice president of his class during both freshman and sophomore years. His sophomore year found him participating on the Student Government Organization Committee and Constitution Committee and making his presence felt in the Waianae High School Senate.

Known for his directness, witty and mature sense of leadership and for an unhesitating friendliness, those who have known Aurelio and worked with him in his numerous endeavors will not soon forget his warm personality and contributions to student life at Waianae High School.

Anyone can see that Isabelle is an energetic, competent and friendly lass, and the Ke Ahe Kai staff especially recognizes this. Carefully chosen by the staff, this cute, petite Filipina is honored with the title of "Miss Ke Ahe Kai".

Isabelle has been active in activities and committees such as the Girls' Athletic Association, where she held the office of secretary, and Student Government Service, Publicity and Organization Committees. Isabelle was also on the Ka Leo O Waianae staff. The editors and advisor recognized Isabelle as the most "valuable reporter" on the staff.

Capability is also one of Isabelle's character traits. During her years in elementary school, Isabelle proved to be capable; thus the whole class nominated her as class secretary when they advanced into intermediate school.

After holding the positions of eighth grade, freshman, and sophomore class secretaries, Isabelle was nominated to run for Student Body Secretary for her junior year. Isabelle came out as the victor with an overwhelming percentage of the votes. In her senior year, Isabelle again was elected as Student Body Secretary; this time she ran unopposed.

Isabelle's cheerful smile and sincere personality has won the admiration and respect of her countless number of friends.
